Northwestern University Center for Public Safety

Detective Sergeant Quinn Carlson has graduated from Northwestern University Center for Public Safety.

The Brown County (OH) Sheriff's Office is pleased to announce the recent graduation of Detective Sergeant Quinn Carlson from the School of Police Staff and Command (SPSC) at Northwestern University. Detective Sergeant Quinn Carlson has successfully completed the (22) week Staff and Command program held in Evanston, Illinois from October 12, 2020 – March 28, 2021. This program, which was implemented by the Center for Public Safety in 1983, has graduated over 25,000 students both nationally and internationally. Detective Sergeant Quinn Carlson was a student in SPSC Class #491 which accommodated a total of 24 students for the twenty-two week period.

The School of Police Staff and Command provides upper-level college instruction in a total of twenty-seven core blocks of instruction and additional optional blocks during each session. The major topics of study include: Leadership, Human Resources, Employee Relations, Organizational Behavior, Applied Statistics, Planning and Policy Development, Budgeting and Resource Allocation. Upon successful completion, students may be awarded a total of 6 units of undergraduate credit from Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

The Center for Public Safety was established at Northwestern University in 1936 with the specific goal of expanding university-based education and training for the Law Enforcement Community. Since its inception, the Center has broadened its original objective and now provides a variety of courses and programs in the area of Police Training, Management Training, and Executive Development. The Brown County (OH) Sheriff's Office anticipates a variety of benefits from Detective Sergeant Quinn Carlson's attendance at this program and congratulates him on this achievement.
