

Brown County Sheriff's Office

Gordon Ellis, Sheriff

750 Mt. Orab Pike

Georgetown, Ohio 45121

Office (937) 378-4435 Fax (937) 378-2039

Press Release

DATE: September 24, 2022

OFFICE POINT OF CONTACT: Sheriff Gordon Ellis

On September 24, 2022 at approximately 7:38 AM, Inmate Craig Senteney, date of birth of 06/22/2001 escaped from the Brown County Jail. He exited through a malfunctioning security door. Inmate Senteney climbed a security fence and fled north from the jail. Responding police units were notified and surrounded the area in the vicinity of the Brown County Jail. Inmate Senteney was apprehended by Ohio Veteran's Home Police approximately 49 minutes after his escape on Station Drive in Georgetown, Ohio approximately 400 yards from the jail.

Inmate Senteney was transported to Mount Orab Mercy and was treated for injuries he incurred from negotiating the security fence. Inmate Centeney in now incarcerated in the Brown County Jail. Inmate Centeney will be charged with felony escape.

The Brown County Sheriff's Office appreciated the assistance provided by the following law enforcement agencies.

Ohio Veterans Home Police

Georgetown Police

Ohio State Highway Patrol

Russellville Police Department

Ripley Police Department